Data Sharing Requests Procedure

December 2023

1. Introduction

- 1.1. It is important that you understand why you share information, how you do it and for what purpose. A key part of this is completing your data mapping which will how you process personal data throughout Weaver Trust and it is important in allowing you to understand the sharing of data.
- 1.2 Where you share information regularly with organisations such as the Council, Department for Education etc. there should be a defined process in place and in most cases such sharing should be covered by a data sharing agreement a document that states the expectations in relation to what will be shared, when and how.
- 1.3 If you provide information to a data processor to allow them to undertake work on your behalf, this will be covered by contract or a Data Processing Agreement.
- 1.4 Both Data Sharing Agreements and Data Processing Agreements are covered in a separate guide.
- 1.5 With one off or irregular requests to share information you may have no formal process in place and you will have to determine whether you can share, what to share and why.
- 1.6 It is important to remember that the UKGDPR is not designed to prevent you from sharing information, it is there to ensure when you do share, you do it appropriately.
- 1.7 Whether you do or don't decide to share, the decision should be recorded for future reference should it be challenged at any point.
- 1.8 The ICO provide a checklist to guide you through the steps necessary to make a decision and we produce them here.
- 1.9 The Appendices contain a Data Sharing Request form for recording when requests are made and a Data Sharing Decision Form for recording the decision made to share or not.

2. Data Sharing Checklist – Systematic Data Sharing

- 2.1 Scenario: You want to enter into an agreement to share personal data on an ongoing basis
- 2.2 Is the sharing justified?
 - Key points to consider:
 - What is the sharing meant to achieve?
 - Have you assessed the potential benefits and risks to individuals and/or society of sharing or not sharing?
 - Is the sharing proportionate to the issue you are addressing?
 - Could the objective be achieved without sharing personal data?
- 2.3 Do you have the power to share?

Weaver Trust – Data Sharing Request Procedure – December 2023

- Key points to consider:
 - The type of organisation you work for.
 - Any relevant functions or powers of your organisation.
 - The nature of the information you have been asked to share (for example was it given in confidence?).
 - Any legal obligation to share information (for example a statutory requirement or a court order).

2.4 If you decide to share

- It is good practice to have a data sharing agreement in place.
- As well as considering the key points above, your data sharing agreement should cover the following issues:
 - What information needs to be shared.
 - The organisations that will be involved.
 - What you need to tell people about the data sharing and how you will communicate that information.
 - Measures to ensure adequate security is in place to protect the data.
 - What arrangements need to be in place to provide individuals with access to their personal data if they request it.
 - Agreed common retention periods for the data.
 - Processes to ensure secure deletion takes place.

3. Principles Data Sharing Checklist – One Off Requests

- 3.1 Scenario: You are asked to share personal data relating to an individual in 'one off' circumstances
- 3.2 Is the sharing justified?
 - Key points to consider:
 - Do you think you should share the information?
 - Have you assessed the potential benefits and risks to individuals and/or society of sharing or not sharing?
 - Do you have concerns that an individual is at risk of serious harm?
 - Do you need to consider an exemption in the DPA to share?
- 3.3 Do you have the power to share?
 - Key points to consider:

- The type of organisation you work for.
- Any relevant functions or powers of your organisation.
- The nature of the information you have been asked to share (for example was it given in confidence?).
- Any legal obligation to share information (for example a statutory requirement or a court order).

3.4 If you decide to share

- Key points to consider:
 - What information do you need to share?
 - Only share what is necessary.
 - o Distinguish fact from opinion.
 - How should the information be shared?
 - o Information must be shared securely.
 - Ensure you are giving information to the right person.
 - Consider whether it is appropriate/safe to inform the individual that you have shared their information.

3.5 Record your decision

- Record your data sharing decision and your reasoning whether or not you shared the information.
- If you share information you should record:
 - What information was shared and for what purpose.
 - Who it was shared with.
 - When it was shared.
 - Your justification for sharing.
 - Whether the information was shared with or without consent
